This photograph shows a collection of educational materials arranged on a wooden surface against a light green wall. On the left, there is a box for 'The Floating Fort Builders' game, which includes red plastic cups and a black bag. Next to it are several colorful counting rods in yellow and green. In the center, there are two small books titled 'FLOOD FISH' and 'I GIVE YOU TEN TO BE A FISH?', along with a small card featuring a cartoon girl. To the right of these books is a cardboard box containing more items, a red duffel bag, and a white tote bag with a graphic design. In the foreground, there are three fish-shaped puppets: one blue and two orange. There are also some small, colorful geometric shapes and a stack of cards or papers.
